RACE RULES

All entrants must be familiar with the Waka Ama New Zealand race and safety rules.
Refer to the following link for more information: <http://wakaama.co.nz/pages/read/1003423>

Waka: It is the responsibility of the team/club entering to arrange the use of eligible waka. W1/W2 must provide their own waka. Fire in Ice will assist with arranging hireage of W6, please email icebreaker.fireinice@gmail.com

Safety equipment: Spray skirts are compulsory due to winter weather conditions. All W6 waka must carry two bailers, two spare paddles and a tow rope. All paddlers will be required to wear life jackets or PFDs. W1 waka will carry a bailer (unless self-bailing), life jacket and a spare paddle.

Dress: Competitors must dress appropriately for colder conditions. Competitors will be checked to ensure they are dressed adequately for the conditions.

Novice Crews: Will have less than one year's paddling experience and may have an experienced steerer and one other experienced paddler. Please respect this when entering the novice category. Lifejackets must be worn by novice paddlers.

Course: Race officials reserve the right to alter the course and distance to suit weather conditions. All steerers are required to attend the race briefing prior to their race start.

Safety: The race director and officials have absolute control over the event. They have the discretion to withdraw any competitor or waka which in their opinion is or will be endangering their own or others' safety. All events are subject to change depending on conditions and entries. The race director has the final decision relating to any race changes and any protests. All waka will have to pass a safety check and be marked before racing. Any boats not marked will not be permitted to race.

Support Boats: Race organisers will arrange officials and support boats. Should a waka require assistance during the race, the paddler in seat 3 must hold their paddle up so that an official support boat or passing waka can provide assistance.

Club of the Regatta Trophy: All paddlers who complete their event earn points toward the Club of Regatta Trophy.
