These are the terms and conditions for participation in the Rotohoe Series. Participants agree to abide by the Race Rules and accept all the risks of injury or damage to property and person that may arise from participation in the Rotohoe Series Event and understand that Ruamatā Waka Ama Club, their appointed officers, race officials and sponsors will not be held responsible whatsoever during the day's racing. We also agree that the race organisers will have the final decision on withdrawing our entry due to inadequate waka equipment and/or the capabilities of the said crew paddlers. We understand that during the race, the race officials may withdraw a crew if in the officials' opinion it is considered that the crew is in danger or likely to be unable to complete the race. If there are white caps, organisers reserve the right to cancel junior W1 races for safety reasons. J16s will not race if there are white caps. Life jackets may be compulsory for competitors depending on weather conditions. All persons participate at their sole risk. No organiser associated in any way with the event will be liable in any way or accept any responsibility for an injury, loss, damage or expense suffered or incurred by any participant during the racing or in any other way in connection with the participation of that person as a team member in the event. I have read, understood and agree to the terms and conditions set out above, and as a condition of and in consideration for the entry and participation in the event I hereby (a) accept and agree to be bound by and observe the terms and conditions set out above and (b) waive any claim or claims I may otherwise have against any one or more of the persons specified above, in respect of any injury, loss, damage or expense suffered or incurred by me during racing or in any other way in connection with my participation in the event.  Please advise of any paddlers who have medical conditions or serious allergies
